Simpson Outlines Steps To Eternity For Students

Bishop Robert L. Simpson of the Presiding Bishopric of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints gave students four ideas to remember Tuesday for living in the eternities.

Speaking at the Devotional assembly in the Smith Fieldhouse, Bishop Simpson said that "eternity is serious business." His four points were:

1. "The priesthood of God is eternal and is the foundation of the Church."

2. This mortal experience is essential for eternal fulfillment.

3. "There are laws established upon which all blessings are predicated."

4. BYU students should do nothing to lose their right to dwell eternally with the Father and the Son.

Bishop Simpson stated that "everything has a spiritual purpose and is controlled by the power of the priesthood." He cited the creation of the earth as an example of priesthood power in action but added that it only can be "controlled upon the principles of righteousness and truth."

The Church leader quoted from the Book of Abraham in the Pearl of Great Price that "they who keep their second estate ("that means you, he interjected) shall have glory added upon their heads for ever and ever."

Freshmen Pick Cabinet

Primary elections will be Thursday and Friday to select the final candidates for freshman class officers. Voting polls will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Wilkinson Center, Desert Towers, and the Library. An activity card will be issued.

"We encourage the freshmen to begin a year of activity and involvement by seeking out and supporting the candidate of their choice," said Sid Henderson of Student Relations Office.

Nine candidates are seeking the honor of being Freshmen Class president. The race is Lucy Anderson, Lloyd Farnsworth, Jay Colley, David Patton, Jock Steed, Michael Sullivan, Dave Day, Mel Miller and Jeff Hardy.

Three men will be opposing a member of the fairer sex for the vice president seat. Running against Marty Wilson are David Everett, Jay Johnson, and Cliff Utter.

Indian Singers Stop At BYU

On route to a Salt Lake City singing engagement, 150 women and six states will today tour U.

interested in viewing the campus, particularly the operation of the Indian program, the group comprises Lamantie Relief Society women who are slated to Thursday in the Tabernacle for the opening session of General conference.

Traveling from the LDS Western Indian Mission, the trip represents two years' work to raise the necessary $4,000 to come—financed through selling baked goods, quilts, bead work, and Christmas wreaths.

The group will be captured on both film and record, to be used for missionary purposes, particularly among Indians.

Interested persons are invited to attend the women's meeting today at 10 a.m. in the Varsity Theater, in which they will be introduced to BYU operations and will practice their selections for Thursday's meeting.

THIS STRETCH of road will be paved "within the month" according to the Provo city engineer's office. It's the continuation of the new Diagonal north of the Riviera Apts.

Pedestrians Warned, Too

Warnings Stop, Drivers Ticketed

By Beverly McCance
University Reporter

BYU Security has stopped issuing warnings, and students find themselves caught in a deluge of tickets and fines.

In an effort to avoid unnecessary ticketing, and to clarify the new parking regulations for both students and faculty, Security has announced the following rules and rule changes:

All motorcycles must park in their respective zones and not in faculty and staff areas. The faculty and staff can park in zones A and D only, and in zone B after 4 p.m.

AREAS OPEN

Those who have only a registration decal can park in any student parking area after 4 p.m. weekdays and all day on weekends. The faculty and staff areas are open to students only on Sundays, and after 6 p.m. on Tuesdays.

All students who own or operate a motor vehicle within the city of Provo must register the vehicle with the Security Office, whether or not it is used on campus.

In addition to traffic violations, Security will be issuing tickets to pedestrians who cross streets against a red light.

STUDENT APPEALS

Students receiving tickets may appeal them at the Student Appeals Court, which meets every weekday from 4:10 to 5:30 p.m. in 111 Wilkinson Center.

Liz Carpenter, Former Johnson Aide, Speaks On 'Human Side Of Politics'

Liz Carpenter, former press secretary and aide to Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, will address a forum assembly at BYU Oct. 2 at 10 a.m. in the George Albert Smith Fieldhouse.

She will also appear in the Temple Square Assembly Hall in Salt Lake City that evening at 8 p.m., under sponsorship of the BYU Salt Lake Center for Continuing Education. Both programs are open to the public. Mrs. Carpenter, 30, is now writing a book for Doubleday concerning experiences with the White House and travels with the President and First Lady, is noted for her comic wit and keen insight into Washington politics.

Speaking on the topic "The Human Side of Politics," Mrs. Carpenter will draw, not only from her experiences as press secretary to Mrs. Johnson for five years, but also from 20 years of experience as a Washington newspaperwoman and three years of experience as executive assistant to the Vice President of the United States.

A popular speaker, she has addressed such groups as The American Society of Newspaper Editors, the Baseball Writers of America.

On Joseph SmithOpera Writing Takes All Summer

"Douglas Isaacson, you have taken my whole summer!" exclaimed BYU teacher Dr. Clinton F. Larson, on the completion of the libretto, poetry for the first Mormon opera of this dispensation.

The opera deals with the martyrdom of Joseph Smith and contains spoken drama (prose), poetic drama, poetic musical, symbolic music, ballet, modern and ballroom dance.

The libretto is contained in a 60-page manuscript. It deals with the life and death of Joseph Smith and incorporates a great deal of church doctrine.

Although the libretto is serious, it contains some levity. It employs romance in the person of Joseph's wife, Emma, who is portrayed as a strong woman beaten by unsurmountable obstacles that have broken a lesser woman sooner.

PERFORMED

The first two scenes were performed at a fundraise in August at the home of Delia Lorin Wheelwright of the College of Fine Arts and Communications. Robert Peterson, baritone, took the part of Joseph. Joseph's part was written especially for a voice such as Mr. Peterson's.

The production is designed to apply the dramatic, visual and the musical arts; hence, the collaboration of Mr. Isaacson, who wrote the music, with Dr. Larson, chairman of the creative writing program at BYU.

Bands Slated For Dance

Two alternating bands will produce the atmosphere and music for the IBM Dance, sponsored by class government.

The Soft Impressionists, a conventional and soft rock band, and the Slow Joy, a rock group, will provide the music for the Friday 9 p.m. to 12 p.m. event at the Wilkinson Center Ballroom.

School dress is appropriate and the cost will be 50 cents per person. Refreshments will be served.

The IBM dance is one of the many activities sponsored by class government. The classes also sponsor Class Competition Week Oct. 20-25.

This will be a masculine-oriented opera with music that is 19th century oriented, yet it has total quality. The somewhat Hebrew sounding music is used to show Mormon basic in the Old Testament and the heritage of Israel.

The libretto will be read in its entirety at the Clinton F. Larson Playhouse which meets at 56 W. 400 N. Provo every other Thursday at 7:30 p.m. This Thursday the group will read "Mary of Nazareth," by Dr. Larson. The opera will be read at the next meeting. The public, including faculty and students, is invited to these meetings.

Dr. Larson added he is pleased by the depth, grandeur and insight of the music in the opera. Isaacson noted that opera was chosen over other music forms because it has survived some 400 years because of the genius of a few composers.

"We are hoping for a complete performance of the opera in the future," Dr. Larson said.

DOUGLAS ISAACSON AND DR. CLINTON F. LARSON HAVE COMPLETED THE LIBRETTO, OR POETRY, FOR THE FIRST MORMON OPERA OF THIS DISPENSATION. DR. LARSON IS CHAIRMAN OF THE BYU CREATIVE WRITING PROGRAM.

whipping Hollanda of Salt Lake in its opener, 9-0.

Hollanda will mark BYU's International Folkdancers' 1969-70 premiere.

Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m.

A number of people have suggested that the Cougars will be blasted off the field by the Germans, most of whom are semi-professional players. BYU players feel otherwise.

In their first game before coming to Utah, Berlin lost to the Denver Kickers, 3-2.

The Denver Kickers managed only two draws during the summer against the Incas of the Utah Soccer Association, and the Incas have lost three in a row to BYU.

However, at last word Berlin had won 35 of 45 games this year, and had coppered 12 of 13 on a previous American tour.

Tuesday night the Germans were scheduled to meet S.C. United of the Utah League, at Skyline High in Salt Lake City. Results were unavailable at press time.

The president of United, Art Naupio, arranged the games.

Following today's match, the Cougars leave for Colorado and a date with the Air Force Academy, which will also be home Denver University and N.C.A.A.-coached Michigan State.

BYU feels honored to be in such company, particularly because N.C.A.A.-member soccer schools are becoming increasingly reluctant to schedule non-N.C.A.A. schools. Soccer is a club sport at the Y.

The weekend games will be N.C.A.A. games. It means a new set of rules for Cougs to play under, but it also means a chance to work for admission to the N.C.A.A. as an independent school.

BYU "B" and BYU "C" will play league games in Provo Saturday. The second-division "B" team will face Hollanda "B" at 3:30 p.m., after the "C" team meets United "B" in a third-division game at 1:30 p.m.

SOCER IS EXCITING as evidenced by a narrowly missed goal by a header.

Poke Tackle Top Player

(AP)—Defensive tackle Neil Nelson of Wyoming, who made the All-American for the Air Force buckfield and helped the Cowboys to a 27-25 victory, was named Monday as Western Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Week.

Other candidates for the wee honor were end Harry Price of New Mexico, back Ken Novak of San Jose State, end Larry Stone of Idaho, back Larry Echohahn of BYU and safety Seth Mallen of Arizona State.

Stone was nominated for a second straight week after he made 12 tackles and recovered a fumble as Utah beat San State 42-7.
